My chore chart

The basics CozyHaus starts a home with: about 304 minutes a week, 43 a day, half of it in the kitchen. Tick a box each time you do one. Missed a week? Nothing doubles: start again with the every-day jobs.

Our chore chart

Initials on every chore, or B for both. Then add up each person's minutes a week; a chore you do together counts for both.

Even?

Yes, if the gap is within about 15% of the bigger total.

Our house chart

Everyone looks after their own room, bed and laundry. The shared jobs sit in four zones; write a name in each box, and move every name one zone along each week. Over four weeks, everyone does every zone once.

1 _____ 2 _____ 3 _____ 4 _____

Zone, and what done means	Time	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4
Kitchen Counters and stove wiped every day, the sink scrubbed and the floor swept every other day.	77 min a week
Bathroom and bins Toilet and sink twice a week, the shower wiped, fresh towels, the small bins emptied, switches and handles wiped; the full clean every other week.	59 min a week
Floors and living room Every floor vacuumed, the hard floors mopped, the cushions plumped and the plants watered.	56 min a week
Dishwasher, in and out Loaded and started every evening, emptied every morning.	56 min a week

Three of you?

Rotate the first three zones, and share the dishwasher: whoever finds it clean empties it.

Our swap rule

Swap a week with anyone, as long as you both say so.

_____

Supplies

Who notices when the soap, bags and sponges run low?

_____

Check-in

Ten minutes, once a week: what slipped, what's due, any swaps. Our day:
